Court calendar and routine legal news on third page.

The grass in Franklin square was cut yesterday.

The police are appearing on the streets in their new summer hats.

The Thirty-Ninth Street Railway, between E and D streets, is being repaired.

Workmen are engaged throughout the city digging the grass from around the tree-boxes.

The Knights of St. Joseph gave a picnic last night at Baker's Park, on the Seventh street road, just above the boundary of the city.

The twelfth annual graduating exercises of the Spencerian Business College will take place to-night, at Lincoln Hall.

The large break in the sidewalk on the north side of E street, between Tenth and Eleventh streets, has been repaired.

The tribe of Artful Dodgers seems to be on the increase. Many complaints are made by persons who have had their "wipes" stolen.

The Probate Court will meet at eleven o'clock a. m. Tuesday morning, June 3, 1878, having recovered from its illness, will preside.

Don't forget the grand excursion to Annapolis. Two hours to reach salt water. Only $1.25. Each ticket secures a seat. See small bills.

The water was turned on in the Patroon circle for the first time yesterday evening since repairs were commenced, about two weeks ago.

The funeral of the late John T. Hoyer, Esq., took place to-morrow afternoon, at three o'clock, from the Assembly Church, corner of Fifth and I streets northwest.

Extensive repairs have been made on the goldstone pavements in the alleys between Tenth and Eleventh and N and O streets and between Ninth and Tenth and Grant and H streets.

Loftier's garden presented a very brilliant and animated appearance last evening, the occasion being a concert and picnic, given by Daniel's band, for the purpose of procuring new uniforms.

Hon. Frederick Douglass, Marshal of this District, has accepted an invitation to deliver the oration on Memorial Day in New York City, on the 30th inst. The oration will take place in Union Square, on the 30th inst.

Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Oscar L. Berger and Miss Lizzie Gaudin. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Dr. Bell, at the German Lutheran Church, corner of Twelfth and G streets, at eight o'clock to-morrow evening.

A man named John McJabe was arrested last evening by Officer Sutton and Detective Voss on a warrant charging him with grand larceny. The accused was taken to Police Headquarters and locked up at a hearing before Judge Smith this morning.

The alarm of fire from box 123, at half-past four o'clock yesterday morning, was tried in on an alarm of a fire in the building of the Washington National Bank, corner of Eighth and E streets northwest. The stock and fixtures were damaged to the extent of $50.

The board of trustees of the Old Fellows' Hall Association has elected a new officer, Patrick O'Hare, of the Fifth Precinct, a land-owning and engaged copy of a resolution of thanks for the prompt and gentlemanly manner in which he had handled a threatened riot of disturbance at the hall on the evening of March 1, 1878.

A certificate of incorporation was filed in the Clerk's office yesterday for the Washington Seaside Society, a corporation to be organized to provide weekly benefits to sick, invalids and a burial fund at death. DISTRICT MATTERS.

Bill Offered in Congress Yesterday.

The Nationalist's Bill.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Johnston introduced a bill to incorporate the Appalachian Mining Association of the District of Columbia, with S. S. Bradford, J. P. Martin, and J. W. Mills as incorporators. Its object being the bonding, purchase, sale, and development of the mining interest in the District.

NATIONAL MUSEUM.

Mr. Merrill, from the Committee on Public Buildings and Grounds, reported favorably a bill appropriating $250,000 for the construction of a fire-proof building for the use of the National Museum, 200 feet square, to be erected under the direction and supervision of the registrar of the Smithsonian Institution, in accordance with the plan of Major-General M. C. Meigs, on the southwest corner of the grounds of the Smithsonian Institution, said building to be placed west of the Smithsonian Institution, leaving a roadway between the latter and the building thirty feet, with its north front on a line parallel with the north face of the buildings of the Agricultural Department and of the Smithsonian Institution.
